Weinig Opticut S50 Crosscut Saw-

Overview and features

Dimter's OptiCut S-series of push-feed saws features automatic feed, positioning, clamping and cutting.

- Quadruple your output with half the staff when compared to your manual crosscut saw.
- Work to a pre-set cut list, or with individual pieces.
- Get accuracy of +/-0.5mm for every cut, and with maximum operational safety for the operator.
- A Dimter OptiCut push-feed saw is very easy to operate, and nearly maintenance free.
- Even better, additional options (including optimisation) can be retro-fitted when you're ready for them.
